or Kids' Sake was created by Big Brothers Big Sisters of America as a way of raising funds to support the program. Thousands of people across the country bowl for the local BBBS program.

Individuals who want to bowl in the fundraiser can get a 3-5 person team together or ask to be assigned to a team. Participants will receive a sponsor sheet and raise money through pledges collected prior to the event. The day-long event will include door prizes, grand prizes, and free pizza and soft drinks complements of Pizza Hunt and Refreshment Services Pepsi.

"The bowl-a-thon raises money to support local volunteer recruitment efforts and provide professional staff to screen adult volunteers before they are matched with children," said A. Gail Church, Ph.D., Director of Big Brothers Big Sisters. "It also allows us to monitor the progress of each match."

Major sponsors of the fundraiser include the Quincy Family YMCA, Casino Lanes, Quincy Herald-Whig, Hy-Vee, KHQA-TV, Pepsi, and Pizza Hut. Co-chairing this year's bowl-a-thon are Jeff Dorsey and Dennis Oliver of Y101 Radio Station.

The Big Brothers Big Sisters Program began in 1969 with LaVerne Norton's thesis project at St. Louis University. It became affiliated with the Quincy Family YMCA in July 1986 and was granted full membership with Big Brothers Big Sisters of America in July 1991.

A MATTER OF URGENCY

Earlier this year a proposal was announced to cut back the size of the Carroll County Board from 15 members to a total of nine. If this recommendation is allowed to pass, it will remain in place for the next ten years. Now is not the time to weaken our representation at the county level. We cannot afford having decisions affecting our socio/economic base, our environment and infrastructure, being placed in the hands of too few. Our trust in the future depends upon all of us...

Let your voice be heard, call your County Board Representative.

Social Security Survivors Benefits

Steve Young, Social Security manager in Bloomington, IL

Probably everyone knows that Social Security pays retirement benefits, but not everyone is aware of the extent which it provides survivors benefits. When someone has worked and paid Social Security, monthly benefits will be paid to certain family members when the worker dies. These include:

- Widows or widowers - full benefits at their full retirement age or reduced benefits as early as age 60. A disabled widow or widower can get benefits at age 50.

- Widows or widowers, at any age, taking care of the deceased worker's child under age 16 or disabled children who get benefits.

- Unmarried children under age 18 up to age 19 if they are attending elementary or secondary school full time. Children can get benefits at any age if they were disabled before age 22 and remained disabled.

- Dependent parents age 62 or older.

- Surviving divorced spouses - if marriage lasted 10 years or more. The former spouse, however, does not have to meet the length-of-marriage rule if she is caring for the worker's child who is under age 16 or disabled and who is getting benefits on the worker's Social Security record. The child must be the worker's former spouse's natural or legally adopted child.

Day arrived with son Jacob, who was much help. Just when I thought this was a miracle, his brother Brian arrived, and then their cousin Jeff Hinkley. The three of them helped with the cleanup after the show and helped some of the people load up to leave. My faith was lifted. They made a tremendous impact on every one. So a giant thank you goes to all three.

April is dedicated to the awareness of child abuse. If you see the gals at Busey Bank wearing a blue ribbon, ask them how you can get one. I am waiting for some papers that were promised. I called last week and spoke to a young lady who promised to send some, and some blue ribbons. I will let you know when I get them.
